MEDICINAL

SUNNY WOMEN.

Who has not known the woman whose disposition is described by that one word "sunny"? There's always a laugh lurking on her lips. Her cheeks are ever ready to dimple in smiles. Her household influence is as brightening and stimulating as the sunshine. Nothing can be crueller than to have this sunshine blotted out by disease. But this is a common cruelty. The young wife who was the sunshine of the home becomes its shadow. Every young wife should know the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the protection and preservation of the health. It promotes regularity, dries the draught which enfeebles body and mind, and cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It nourishes the nervous system and gives to the body the balance and buoyancy of perfect health. It is a strictly temperance medicine.

"I can say that your medicine cured me," writes Mrs. M. J. Pearson, of Louisville, Ky. "I had suffered about twelve years from female weakness and I had almost given up, thinking there was no cure for me. Then I heard about Dr. Pierce's medicine and thought I would try it, and can say that seven bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' made me well. I am now able to do my own housework. I took about twelve bottles in all of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Took some of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription,' and some of the 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

CATARRH LOCAL AND CLIMATIC.

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure Catarrh. The specific is Ely's Cream Balm. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. Opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Alleviates inflammation. Heals and protects the Membrane. Restores the Sense of Taste and Smell. No Mercury. No Injurious Drugs. Regular size, 50 cents; Family Size, $1.00, at Druggists, or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS. An Old and Well-Tried Remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure directs what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it.

SULU'S SULTAN A GUEST.

A dispatch from Jolo, P. I., says: The Sultan of the Sulu with his court and a guard of fifty Moros were received by the Philippine commission on board the transport Sumner on Wednesday morning.

The Sultan, who previously held office on the ground that as a matter of courtesy the members of the commission should first call on him, shook hands cordially with all the American officers. Before that the Sultan claimed to be indisposed and thought the commissioners should come to see him.

He was received with a salute of seventeen guns and in the afternoon the members of the commission returned the call. The Sultan occupied the quarters of Major Sweet ashore and entertained the members of the commission with athletic games and Moro dances.

When he left he declared that he would see to it that harbor improvements would be put in better shape. He also stated that he was desirous of stimulating commerce with the United States and of extending the friendship that had been initiated by the American army. The Sultan said he was very much pleased at his cordial reception and expressed a desire to communicate frequently and co-operate with the commission at Manila.

The Sultan also referred to the relations which he said, had been entered into by the Sultan of Turkey and Omar Sharif, formerly the American minister at Constantinople, regarding Mohammedanism in the Sulu archipelago. The conditions at Jolo are steadily improving. Trade is being largely extended, but most of the commerce is with England.

As a matter of precaution and in order to insure continued peace Governor General MacArthur will retain 700 men of the Twenty third regulars at Jolo.

FORGETS THE LAST SEVENTEEN YEARS.

Francis F. Washburn, a grocer of 72 Charles street, Allegheny, Pa., a short time ago recovered his memory of things that happened prior to 1884, when he was 24 years old, and in turn forgot things that happened in the last seventeen years. The complaint with which Washburn was afflicted is amnesia and the only case on record similar to his is that of the Rev. Mr. Hanna, reported by Dr. Joris Sidis of New York in his "Psychology of Suggestion."

Washburn's loss of memory was not complete, as he knew his name when he came to Pittsburgh seventeen years ago, but nobody ever heard him speak of his past life or of his birthplace. Two weeks ago Washburn was seized with fits of dizziness and one night he fell on the floor of his bedroom. When he recovered consciousness his first words were: "Was I much hurt, nurse?"

He was very indignant when assured by Mrs. Washburn that she was his wife and angrily disowned the four children whom she brought in to him. Since then Washburn has been under medical treatment and he is gradually learning the events of the past seventeen years, although he does not yet understand the trolley cars. Washburn says his home is in Warren, Pa. In 1884 he was on his way to Denver to look up some property his father had left. West of Rock Island his train was wrecked and it was this accident he had in mind when he spoke to his wife after falling to the floor. He was a painter by trade and the knowledge of his handicraft did not leave him with his memory, so he took up his old trade when he got to Pittsburgh. He was married twelve years ago, and a few years ago he took up the grocery business. The family is poor.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

WHILE THERE IS LIFE THERE IS HOPE. I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shastis, Rahway, N. J.

The Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Frank Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren st., New York.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given one Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough.
